Molokai Homes Lots
Thought Too Large

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, June 20.—Dr. Elwood Mead speaking to the Hawaiian Homes Commission this morning told them of his conclusions after his visit of investigation of the Molokai lands. He said he was generally pleased with the plans except that he considered the tracts that are to be allotted as too large.

Governor Farrington pointed out to Dr. Mead and the commission that the Hawaiian Homes law provides a minimum size of 20 acres for a lot and such provision cannot be changed by the commission.

Canneries Busy and
Rush Draws Closer;
Peak About July 15

Maui's pine pack is getting into swing and coming forward fast, according to reports received from the three canneries yesterday. On West Maui the peak will be reached soon after the first of July. D. T. Fleming reports but in East Maui the climax will not be reached until ten days to two weeks later.

The big cannery at Haiku, that of the Haiku Fruit & Packing Company, has been running three lines for several days past and expected today to start up a fourth. Manager A. E. Tavares says the fruit is fine and that the cannery has taken on a real busy air. More help from Honolulu is expected within the next few days and the fruit will come in faster and faster until between the tenth and fifteenth which will be the crest, he expects. His estimate of the pack was given out some time since.

Pawela reports that it is running two lines and its pack is now about 2700 cases daily. It also expects the crest to come shortly before the middle of July. It has ample forces to operate its cannery.

Over at Lahaina up to the first of the week Baldwin Packers had packed about 13,000 cases, is now putting up something over 2000 cases daily and will add 13,000 to its total this week. Next week the output will be increased to 3000 cases daily. The top of the season will be a little earlier there, about July 1.

A. E. Tavares said that plans for the Hana company are going forward steadily along the lines he had already indicated. Demand for stock in the new company is apparent but the preliminaries to incorporation have not been completed yet.

Cards Out Announcing
Dinner to Judge Case

Cards announcing the dinner which the Chamber of Commerce and the Maui County Fair and Racing Association are tendering to Judge D. H. Case the former secretary of the two organizations were mailed out Saturday night to the members of both organizations and replies started coming in to the Grand Hotel yesterday morning. The committee is expecting to meet with the toast master today on general arrangements of the program.

No "stag affair" will this dinner be. There are women members of the Fair and Racing Association and the design of the committee in charge was to make it a "family affair" the members of the families that together go to make up the one big "Maui family."

Steamers Booked
Full For Fourth
Great Crowds Coming For Foresters' Convention and
"Make Happy" Program Is Growing Steadily Bigger.

For "Make Happy" the Kinau will bring 180 Foresters and families and friends and the Kilauea 280. M. G. Paschoal, chairman of the "Make Happy" committee said yesterday and added that he was advised that others would come up on the Mauna Loa and that if there were a sufficient number to warrant it, as he expects there will be, the Mauna Loa would make Kahului on her trip to Hawaii on June 30. Those who can stay longer than the Fourth of July holidays are arranging to come up earlier in the last week of June, there will be still others on the July 1, Mauna Kea. It will be a great crowd that will be here for the Foresters convention and the carnival in connection with it.

Great Races and Sports
"It is a big program we are putting on," said Paschoal. "The racing program is a good one and we have promise of a long string of entries but they will not close until Sunday. You can put it down though that the card will be well filled and the class will be high. Maui will live up to the reputation for Fourth of July races it has established during the past 40 years. The track is in fine shape.

"The Japanese wrestling will be a great attraction. We have received definite information that Kaula is sending three mat artists and we will have the best from Oahu and probably some from Hawaii. This island has some Japanese wrestlers that rank high in the sport and they will be represented."

Asahis Coming Over
Here Paschoal turned to George Cummings and inquired as to the baseball program. "We shall have a three cornered tournament and a good one," George replied. "There will be strong Foresters team made up from the two Honolulu Courts and we expect the strong Honolulu Asahis. Against them we will put in a strong Maui team. The Honolulu Foresters have some of the best talent of Oahu with them. We have word from Kaula that though they will send a good delegation to the convention they have not been able to get up a ball nine that would show as the Garden Island would want to be represented. We've wanted the Asahis over here for a long time and they will be a big drawing card for the fans."

Shows and Entertainment
Then Paschoal continued: "There will be shows aplenty, Eddie Fernandez will have been a big bunch of attractions. Among them will be, he told me when I was in Honolulu, the "Fire Eater," "Wrestling Bears," a dandy vaudeville and the best bunch of dancers he has ever got together. There will be two rides, the wheel and the merry go round and about two dozen other concessions.

"Each of three courts will put on an evening of entertainment. Court Lunello will put on the same show it staged in Honolulu last year entitled "Four Nights in Hawaii." The court has been working for weeks in preparation for it.

"Court Camoes will stage a vaudeville show and without saying too much and giving their plans away Miss Almos will sing and Johnny Noble and Sunny Cunha are on the bill.

"Valley Island will reproduce some of the best numbers of the 'Night in Hawaii' recently produced by the Hawaiian Woman's Club but will add several features which are now being rehearsed."

"This is just a brief summary of our program, but it shows that 'Make Happy' will come through big."

County Library Now
Extends Usefulness
In Many Directions

From the Maui County Free Library at Wailuku there are 737 individual borrowers, adults and children. This does not include the number of individuals served from the various branches that have been established as to which reports are being compiled. In Wailuku there were 16 new borrowing cards issued in the month of May. Additions to the books for circulation in the month were 126, of which 111 were adult fiction, 13 juveniles and two books of reference.

During May while there were alterations going on at the entrance of the building and painting later there were a few days the delivery department was closed and thus the number of books loaned in the month at Wailuku was somewhat smaller than it might otherwise have been but 1813 books were taken out in the month.

To the outside branches 176 books were shipped out and 21 were returned, there being outstanding for the branches 1718 volumes. A large number of branches are in the schools and their service will be ended during the summer but community branches are being opened to replace some of them during the summer, as at Kilauea where Mrs. K. Ching will be librarian. At Hana the branch was opened on the fourteenth and Miss Mitchell wrote that she had a busy day giving out cards to prospective borrowers and that 23 books were taken on the first day. When the cards she gave out are returned she expects to have quite a large list of book users.

Miss Morse, the Librarian made trips to Hana District and to Molokai during the month and made arrangements for the starting of the two branches mentioned, two on Molokai and for several more schools to be served after the summer vacation.

Trout Fry Planted
And Game Birds Are Secured For Maui

Trout fry have been placed in three streams on Maui and game birds have been let loose on Molokai and Lanai and are to be turned out on East Maui soon, is good news for Maui sportsmen, disciples of Isaak Walton and nimrod alike. H. L. Kelly of the fish and game commission brought over the trout fry that have been long awaited and Supervisor D. T. Fleming brought in the game birds.

In the upper waters of Waiehe and Iao streams on this side of the Island and in Honokohau stream in West Maui young trout have been released. Kelly attended to the stocking of Iao and Waiehe and Arthur Gordon and Elbert Gillin carried two cases of fry far up Honokohau. They went horseback as far as they could and then walked on two or three miles further. Now the results of the experiments must be watched. They are the first trout the commission has introduced on this island.

Before leaving Kelly said he expected good results in Waiehe stream but was not so sure of Iao. Gordon and Gillen said they took the trout well above the Honokohau intake and that there were other fish in that vicinity so they hoped all would be well.

Sends Arms to Ireland

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
TRENTON, N. J., June 19.—Col. M. H. Thompson, vice-president of the Auto Ordnance Co., of New York, and a son-in-law of Col. George Harvey, the American ambassador to Great Britain, was indicted today by the federal grand jury, together with seven other individuals and the corporation itself, on a charge of conspiracy to ship arms to Ireland in violation of the neutrality laws.

The indictments are the result of the seizure last June of 459 machine guns which were concealed in the bunkers of the freighter East Side, which was docked at Hoboken. It is believed that the guns were destined for Ireland.

The pro-treaty candidates are leading those opposed to the treaty and the laborites. The vote has overwhelmingly favored pro-treatyites as second choice on the preferential ballot. However the Republicans claim they do not expect to lose more than 15 seats in the Dail.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
DUBLIN, June 19.—The first count of the votes in the Irish parliament elections of last week showed today that the mid-Dublin district had elected Lord Mayor O'Neill, a pro-treaty independent and Alderman Burns, also a pro-treaty candidate. Inter-Island Co. Is Reported as Ready to Run Maui Excursion

Honoluluans are being given the opportunity to know the islands better and at the same time enjoy day outings through the excursions that are being conducted by the Inter-Island Company and Maui can have the same opportunities if it be desired. So reports W. J. Coelho after talks with officials of the company in Honolulu.

The Inter-Island Company has run an excursion around Oahu and one around Molokai with the Kilauea sailing from Honolulu and is announcing a Fourth of July trip around Molokai by another steamer. The two already held are reported to have been much enjoyed and Coelho thought it would be a fine thing if a similar chance for outings were given Maui. He took the matter up with Messrs. Stanley Kennedy and Hon. The Inter-Island Company is ready to run an excursion or excursions from Maui, Coelho was told by the officials. All that is necessary is to assure a sufficient party and agree upon the date desired. Some one will have to take the initiative, if any thing is to be done however. Comparatively few persons have sailed completely around Maui and the same is true as Molokai. Either of those trips would be popular, it is believed.

Denby and All Party

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, June 19.—Guests of the Chamber of Commerce, secretary of the navy Denby and party circled the island of Oahu by automobile Sunday. A stop was made at Haleiwa for luncheon.

After complimenting Simpson and Sumner on the splendid cooperation between both branches of the service and the civilian administration and the fine condition of the morale of both branches, Denby spoke as follows in part: "You do not like to think of the possibilities that make armies and navies necessary but we know such possibilities exist and they can not be forgotten by those responsible for the defense of the United States."

Denby in the glass bottomed boat at Haleiwa bay saw the floor of the ocean that his forces guard. Upon the return to Honolulu he made an address at the army and Navy Y. M. C. A. The party left for Japan at 9 o'clock this morning.
